MEMBERSHIP SERVICES /ACCREDITATION PROGRAMS

To promote and sustain the varied benefits and services provided by a professional association requires vision, hard work — and of course, resources. Concurrently, real-time budgetary constraints often necessitate juggling finances to maintain on-going services while advancing development. We are intimately familiar with the challenge this presents. For almost 30 years we have worked closely with associations to help facilitate and develop programs that both meet service requirements and mitigate rising costs. In fact, hundreds of organizations nationwide have partnered with us and successfully defrayed program expenses and/or created new revenue streams while enhancing and expanding program offerings and services.

At MTM we understand that for many individuals and organizations affiliation with an association in their field serves as a part of entry to a wide network of colleagues, future associates and friends. Further, associations serve as a catalyst for advancement and change, influencing specialization, professional accomplishment and continuing education—elevating one’s status in a particular field or industry. Thus, the importance of acquiring various credentials, certification and or accreditation cannot be underestimated.

JOINT COMMISSION ON ACCREDITATION OF HEALTHCARE ORGANIZATIONS

Clearly, it’s all about credibility—for both the individual and the association. Which is why we take our work very seriously. It’s our job to help associations with the nitty gritty mechanics and fulfillment services that are necessary to ensure seamless processing, production and delivery of those important credentials , promotional materials and recognition products that reflect so highly on the recipient and the issuing organization.

Over the years we have steadily carved a niche as a comprehensive supplier to associations requiring a more creative, strategic approach to membership services, recognition and promotional marketing. Our diverse capabilities are designed to streamline program operations, eliminate redundancy and mitigate extraneous costs. Bottom line: seamless program operation--fewer administrative headaches.

CUSTOM AWARDS

The creative team at MTM is comprised of a highly motivated and talented group of artists, calligraphers, and craftsmen committed to meeting the unique requirements of each organization we serve with the highest quality custom awards available. Whether the goal is to acknowledge individual achievement, or develop a continuing awards program, we have consistently exceeded the expectations of our customers for almost thirty years.

DISTINCT RECOGNITION

MTM designs and produces an unparalleled variety of distinct recognition items including bronze castings, etched or engraved metal and crystal, custom jewelry pieces, fine art prints and corporate montages. Because exceptional individual effort or service often calls for distinctive praise or recognition, our goal at MTM is to ensure that we perceptually match such accomplishment with just the right piece to complement that rare achievement.

For the recipient this rare symbol of recognition serves as a lasting and deeply personal remembrance of honor and praise.

ENGROSSED AWARDS

Even the most elegant statement of appreciation or sentiment is quickly forgotten if not committed to paper. And no finer execution of the printed word may be recorded than in a hand engrossed testimonial suitably framed or bound for posterity. Each piece is individually prepared through a unique combination of classic hand-lettering, painting and 24k gold illumination, melded with contemporary printing, matting and framing or binding processes. We also offer personal assistance in the writing, editing and proofing of copy, materials selected, as well as finishing, packaging and presentation of each piece.

Our original engrossed awards (scrolls, testimonials, & resolutions) have been presented to four U.S. Presidents, numerous dignitaries, business leaders, sports and entertainment figures.

Call-Out / Fulfillment

Most associations take advantage of quantity pricing for on-going orders fulfilled over a 12 month period. Through MTM On-Demand, customer certificates & awards, (as well as standard catalog items) can be inventoried under a blanket purchase order, and upon request, personalized and shipped with-in 5-7 days. Our standard call-out program allows for quantity pricing, regardless of the size of individual releases, preserves customer certificate stock and awards from loss or damage, eliminates delay in processing or shipping orders and protects a program from future price increases. There are no inventory or restocking fees and customer property may be immediately returned upon request.

MTM On-Demand fulfillment programs typically include:

- * Reproduction of master certificate shells/stock
- * Personalization of 2-3 variables & facsimile signatures on prepaid certificate stock.
- * Insertion of certificate with up to (2) additional documents in a white rigid stay flat mailer (or mounting of certificate on plaque or frame)
- * Generating and affixing of labels
- * Packaging & handling — utilizing UPS/US postal approved mailers/cartons
- * Technical administration & customer support services & inventory control
- * Seamless order formatting, processing & proofing via emailed spreadsheets.
